VR Games Privacy Policy

This privacy policy is designed to assist you with understanding how VR games would collect, use and disclose the information you provide us when accessing or using the website.

We may change this privacy policy in our sole discretion at any time. Any revisions to this privacy policy will be posted on our website. It is your obligation to periodically visit our website to review any changes that may be made to this privacy policy. Your continued use of our website constitutes your agreement to be bound by any such changes to this privacy policy. If you do not agree with this privacy policy, you are not authorized to use our website and your sole recourse is to not use our website.

By providing us with your personal information, you also give consent to us to collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information in accordance with this privacy policy. If you choose to correspond further with us through email or through the contact section of our website, we may retain, use and disclose the content of your messages together with your email address and our responses.

VR Games collects and saves only the personal data that is necessary for the work and operations of VR Games. VR Games also promotes the truthfulness and completeness of personal data, by encouraging users to enter their data correctly and completely. VR Games relies on its users to enter their personal data correctly and completely. In case of necessity, the users have the right to edit, complement or erase their personal data saved in their user accounts.

Personal data are not forwarded to a third party, except for the cases where the platform user has agreed to this, the data is required for the fulfillment of the mutual commitments between VR Games and user, or the data transfer has been requested or otherwise permitted by the corresponding normative acts or the legal rules and regulations.

VR Games processes the personal data of the users to ensure their confidentiality and applies internal procedures and control methods to prevent unauthorized use, access, disclosure, copying, editing, or damaging of the personal data, while using all reasonable means to ensure the safety, integrity, and privacy of the personal data.

VR Games processes personal data fairly, in accordance with law, and does not use personal data for purposes that do not correspond to the goals for which VR Games has received personal data. The collected personal data is processed by VR Games to complete orders, improve the VR Games platform and online information accessibility, provide users with information on VR Games operations and news, and provide support for user payments and other services, etc.

VR Games has the right to collect data about the platform users, by using cookies to improve the services available to the users. The non-acceptance of cookies will not prevent the clients to use the website, but it can limit their access to some features of the website.

The user has the right to edit personal data saved by VR Games. If the user wishes to decline announcements or newsletters, want to delete her/his personal data completely, or any queries on the use of personal data, the user is free to contact VR Games by email at our authorized contact email.

Our website may offer social sharing features, links to social media and other integrated tools. Your use of such features enables the sharing of information with your contacts or the public, depending on the settings you use with the entity that provides the social sharing feature or social media. Please visit the privacy policies of the entities that provide these features to obtain more information about the purpose and scope of data collection and the processing of the personal and other data by such entities.

This website may contain links to other third party websites that may collect personal information about you, including through cookies or other technologies. If you link to another website, you will leave this website and this privacy policy will not apply to your use of and activity on those other websites. You should consult these other websites' privacy policies as we have no control over them and are not responsible for any information that is submitted to or collected by these third parties.

VR Games is committed to uphold the privacy and integrity of the personal data in the best possible ways.
